My dearest Adelynne... You are positively perfect in every way.
Finding someone as flawless as you is almost as rare as finding a unicorn.

In fact, it's exactly as rare as finding a unicorn!

I wish for nothing more than to spend the rest of my life with you, darling!
Ah, wait...

Before you get too carried away...
There's something I need to confess, and it's, uh...
It's a little weird.

You can confide in me, my love. Nothing you could tell me would ever drive me away!
